Why Sponsor at IHLC 2019?

Connect with Leading and Emerging Researchers

You will gain exposure, build relationships and reach influential decision makers from a wide range of topics associated with Hearing Loss research.

Premium Branding & Positioning Opportunity

You will reach your target audience and be recognized as a supporter of the conference and its aims. Set your product, service and brand apart from your competitors - guaranteed visibility on printed materials, advertising, and promotions. Access to approximately 250+ researchers.

Face Time with Leading International Scientists and Clinicians

Attendees from approximately 25 countries – most of whom make or influence purchasing decisions at their facilities and are actively seeking new information, products, and techniques in auditory cortex research.

How to become a sponsor

Visit our website <https://hearinglossconference.org/> and follow the links to become a sponsor. Our online registration system will ask you for the following information:

- Company and contact information
- Expo booth representative information (if applicable)
- Company description (maximum 700 characters, approximately 100 words)

Sponsorship opportunities

As a conference sponsor, your brand will be exposed to over over 250 members of the hearing health care fields through pre-conference announcements, and newsletters, special activities and actions during the conference. Differentiate your company from your competitors, increase your company's visibility or introduce your new products to this active neuroscience community.
